This is a national association of non-profit organizations that deliver innovative, practical environmental solutions to Canadian households and communities.

Plant for the Planet

The United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) has launched a major worldwide tree planting campaign. Under the Plant for the Planet: Billion Tree Campaign, people, communities, business and industry, civil society organizations and governments are encouraged to enter tree planting pledges online with the objective of planting at least one billion trees worldwide.

TD Great Canadian Shoreline Cleanup

The TD Great Canadian Shoreline Cleanup is a national conservation initiative that allows all Canadians to have a positive impact on their local environment. Sign up for a shoreline cleanup and join Canadians from coast to coast who are helping to keep Canada's shorelines healthy. This usually takes place third week of September, but it's a great community event to do during Environment Week. Shorelines can be on rivers, lakes, ponds, streams and wetlands.

Their mission is to provide leadership and encourage partnership in caring for the environment by inspiring, informing, and enabling nations and peoples to improve their quality of life without compromising that of future generations.

Welcome to the Idle-Free Zone

Natural Resources Canada has developed ready-to-use graphic materials, articles, tools and templates that can help you organize a public education campaign at your workplace or develop a larger-scale awareness and outreach campaign in your community. This is another way to celebrate Environment Week is by starting an idle-free campaign in your community.
